

King County Breakfast – Area VII

Saturday, March 12th, 2022

Washington Women Ahead of the Curve:

Josephine Corliss Preston & Dr. Mabel Seagrave

John Hughes is Chief Historian in the Secretary of State's Office in Olympia.

He has had a long career in journalism and is a recipient of the June Anderson Almquist Lifetime Achievement Award from the Society of Professional Journalists.

He has authored 12 books on Northwest history, including biographies of Booth Gardner, Slade Gorton, and Julia Butler Hansen. Former publisher of Aberdeen's Daily World, he also wrote Pressing On about the Seattle Times and Wenatchee World newspapers.

Guest Speaker: John C. Hughes

9:00 am—Registration & Social

9:30 am—Breakfast & Program

Breakfast Includes:

Scrambled Eggs, Bacon,
Potatoes, Fruit and Coffee/Tea

Inglewood Golf Club

6505 Inglewood Rd. NE
Kenmore, WA 98021

RSVP by February 3rd

$25 check made out to King County Council

Mail to: Patricia Russell, Treasurer

21038 102nd Avenue SE

Kent, WA 98031-2058

253-859-9284/p.russell@comcast.net

Maximum - 75 In-Person Attendees

Mask & Proof of Vaccination or Negative PCR Test Required